Prevention of COVID-19 – Important Notes for Exhibitors and Trade Visitors/Guests from Mainland China Regarding Epidemic Prevention

I. Anti-Epidemic Requirements for Exhibitors from Mainland China

- Before entering the exhibition hall, exhibitors must present their exhibitor badges and Macao Health Codes, wear masks, and take body temperature checks.
- While in the exhibition hall, exhibitors should wear a mask properly at all times and observe a distance of at least one metre from others.
- Exhibitors should prepare disposable gloves, alcohol-based hand sanitizers, extra masks, and so on.
- Exhibitors should keep their booths well-ventilated, wear a mask properly while talking to traders, have proper seating plans, and practise social distancing during negotiation.

Important Notes for Entering Macao

- Exhibitors entering Macao from Mainland China must present a valid negative nucleic acid test report/sampling certificate issued from Mainland China/Macao within the last 7 days, a green Macao Health Code, and a valid travel document.
- Exhibitors from Mainland China can convert their Yuekang Codes to Macao Health Codes by clicking the “Convert Yuekang Code to Macao Health Code” button on the webpage. The page will then automatically jump to the designated Macao Health Code website. After filling in and submitting their health history, contact history and travel history, exhibitors will receive their Macao Health Code.

Important Notes:

- To ensure a negative result of nucleic acid test has been obtained prior to arrival in Macao, all inbound travellers should present a valid negative nucleic acid test report issued by a recognised Macao or Mainland testing institution pursuant to the requirement of the Macao SAR Government or the Health Bureau.
- Validity of negative reports: Within 7 days after the sampling date for individuals entering Macao from regions other than Hong Kong (for example, if the sample was taken on 10 August, the validity period shall be up to 17 August).
- If necessary, travellers may obtain new nucleic acid test reports from the following qualified COVID-19 testing organisations announced by the health authorities in Macao:
 - Health Bureau
 - Kuok Kim (Macao) Hygiene Testing Co. Ltd.
 - Kiang Wu Hospital
 - University Hospital
- For more information on epidemic prevention, please visit the Special Webpage Against Epidemics of the Novel Coronavirus Response and Coordination Centre of the Macao SAR Government:
